

Lifted High in the Arms of love

Ali Burns

We who love, we who hold thought and freedom more dear than gold.
We are lifted in the arms of heroes and dreamers
And we are lifted high in the arms of love.

Children grow and the world keeps turning
Day by day and stars still burn.
So find what you love, do what you love,
Mend what you love, share what you love,
Plant what you love, grow what you love,
Sing what you love, love who you love,
high in the arms of love.

Just one chance for the fireworks of living
Just one chance to be heroes and dreamers.

High in the arms of love.....
